

CAMEL CARAVAN Out of the way, there's a convoy coming through! It's made up of camels carrying salt—Ethiopia's white gold, mined from the Danakil Depression. Highly prized, both to flavor food and preserve it, salt is levered out of the giant salt flats at Danakil in slabs. These slabs are then cut into blocks and lashed onto the backs of the camels, the ultimate desert pack animal.