Brompton Folding Bicycle UK 1981-83

There are more than 1,200 parts in a Brompton Folding Bicycle.

Cycling may be lots of fun, but many people ride their bicycles to and from work, or use them in order to do their jobs. Bicycles offer a cheap, quick, and convenient way to get around, and to transport people and deliver goods.

In both crowded towns and cities, and isolated countryside areas, police mountain bicycles allow officers to get to a crime scene quickly. Response bicycles, with their pannier bags filled with lifesaving medical equipment, can get through traffic or crowds to reach a patient where
