

ICONIC PEAK

With its precipitous, glacier-sculpted walls, the Matterhorn is the quintessential alpine peak. Its summit, at 14,692 ft (4,478 m), was first conquered in 1865.