

Art

is all about using your imagination and style to create brilliant new things.

Maths

is about numbers, patterns, and problem-solving.