Hello there.
I'm Blob and I'll be your companion on this great journey. But don't come to me for guidance—I'm in the dark as much as you. Just look at this signpost! It's clear we're heading into some interesting new territory. I'll try to keep us on the right track, but at the moment, I feel pulled in all directions. Let's hope some of these destinations knock me into shape.
We'd better get started, with all of this ground to cover. Who knows where we'll end up? Your guess is as good as mine. Ready to go? Follow me.
