

The Gran
Telescopio Canarias
can collect light
that has traveled
across space for millions
of years.

SPACE SIGNALS

Radio telescopes detect radio waves emitted by objects such as galaxies and stars. The world's largest single-dish radio telescope is located in Guizhou, China. Its large bowl-shaped dish is made up of 4,450 panels that move together to focus the dish on an object in space.