

Artificial skin is light and flexible.

A nutrient gel contains everything the cells
need to multiply and form into sheets.

It takes three weeks
to grow 11 sq ft (1 sq m) of artificial skin
in a culture.