

Pumpkin Coach

Here's a craft to make you feel just like Cinderella's fairy godmother. Believe it or not, you can transform a pumpkin into a coach that's fit for a royal ball. With a bit of luck, your coach might even last beyond midnight!

You will need:

- Carving pumpkin with its stem still on
- Pumpkin carving tools or a knife and spoon
- Acrylic paint
- Paintbrush
- Pencil
- Scraps of pink satin
- Scissors
- Two straight pins or a knife and spoon
- Glue
- Wide, wired ribbon
- Small, clear jar (optional)

Prepare your pumpkin

Find the most evenly shaped pumpkin that you can. Before you start, wash off any dirt.

- 1 Ask an adult to cut a hole in the bottom of the pumpkin. Scoop out all of the insides.

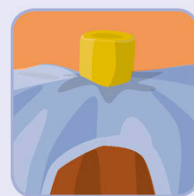

- 2 Ask an adult to help you carve a semicircular window.

- 3 Paint the pumpkin with pearlescent light-blue paint. You'll need two or three coats.

- 4 Leave it to dry completely.

If you can't find pearlescent blue paint, mix blue, white and metallic silver.

- 5 Paint the stem metallic gold.

Bring it all together

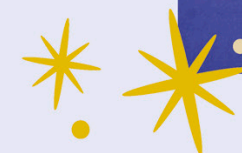

Once your pumpkin is dry, it's ready for a magical transformation into a fairy-tale coach.

- 1 With a pencil, draw an oval-shaped door and a "C" for Cinderella in a crest.

- 2 Paint gold around the edge of the window and over your pencil lines.

- 3 Cut a rectangle of pink satin that will fit in your window.

- 4 Pin or glue the satin inside the pumpkin, and arrange it to look like curtains.
