

Hexagonal pyramids:
One net template makes one shape.

SCORING

When using these templates it is useful to score your cardboard before you fold it. To do this, carefully run a pair of scissors along the edge of a ruler using the dashed line on the template (see key) as a guide. It is important to fold all your scored lines before you glue or tape any of the pieces.

Hexagonal prism: One net template makes one shape.