

Something in the yard caught Billy's eye.
He saw the most beautiful flower.

It was tall, colorful, and full of life. Billy had planted it with his mommy, but that was a long time ago.

He hadn't realized how much
it had grown since then.

