

Biathlon

Biathlon is a winter endurance sport that combines cross-country skiing and rifle shooting.

The biathlete who records the fastest time wins.

Shooting

Ski and shoot

Competitors ski around the track as quickly as possible, stopping at several spots to shoot at targets. If they miss, they must ski around a penalty loop or have a minute added to their time.

Biathlon means
"two contests."