Going for gold

Michael won six gold medals at the 2004 Olympics. Four years later, he set the record for most gold medals won at a single games with eight. The gold rush continued with four in 2012, and the superstar ended his career in style by winning five in 2016.

EAT, SLEEP, and SWIM. That's all I do!

Fuel for the machine

All that swimming takes a lot of energy. Michael's eating habits are the stuff of legend. This is what he ate every day while training for the 2008 Olympics.
