

Around 1 BILLION people watched his famous "Rumble in the Jungle" fight.

Ali's boxing style was all about speed. He famously said he "floats like a butterfly and stings like a bee."

Boxing legend

He was stripped of his titles in 1967 after refusing to fight in the Vietnam War because of his religion. But he returned to boxing in 1970 and went on to win two more titles.

Muhammad Ali is a hero to many, not just for his boxing skills, but for also standing up for what he believed in.
