

TO MAKE THE DRESSING, place the sesame oil, rice vinegar, soy sauce, honey, and 1 tbsp extra virgin olive oil in a sealable jar and shake until well mixed.

PLACE THE TOFU on a plate lined with kitchen paper. Place more paper and a chopping board on top. Leave for 15 minutes to help squeeze out any liquid.

CUT THE TOFU into 2.5cm (1in) cubes. Heat the remaining olive oil in a frying pan ready to cook the tofu.

ASK AN ADULT to cook the tofu on a medium heat until it has browned on all sides, this will take about 5 minutes.

MAKE UP THE LAYERS of salad in a glass or jar. Begin with the peas and mint, then add a layer of tomatoes, carrot, yellow and orange peppers.

ADD A LAYER OF beetroot, tofu, and salad leaves. When you're ready to eat, add a little of the dressing, shake to combine, then top with the sesame seeds.
