

Bakunawa

The Bakunawa is a terrifying fanged beast from the Philippines. Many stories about it appear in Filipino mythology. Bakunawa means “bent snake.”

APPEARANCE

Dark and sea serpent-like, the Bakunawa is wingless, legless, and has a looped tail.

DWELLING

Deep seas, dark skies, or the underworld.

POWERS AND TRAITS

- Can swallow the moon in a single bite—causing an eclipse and plunging the world into darkness.
- Creating catastrophic natural disasters such as earthquakes and floods.