For Sam and Livs, legendary Tales' Saturday staff, for your ongoing kindness, TM x

The author would like to thank:

The whole Moon Lane team for all their love and support, and for being so brilliant at their jobs that I am able to have time to write. Thank you for keeping the world turning.

The brilliant team at DK, particularly Sarah Larter for sowing the seeds that have become this book, editor extraordinaire James Mitchem for making this book a complete joy to work on from beginning to end, Elle Ward for her magical vision, and all the sales, marketing, reps, foreign rights, and other teams working behind the scenes, you are vital ingredients to any book.

Peter and Alex for making space for Dragon's Folly—an act of unrivalled generosity—thank you for giving me room to write, and the rest of Addington Street, just thank you.

Most of all, I would like to thank my family and the stunning illustrator, Alessandra Fusi, whose images have lit up my life on an almost daily basis this year—how lucky am I to be working with you and to have watched you bring each idea to life. Thank you from the bottom of my heart.

The publisher would like to thank:

Sam Priddy and Jo Clark for getting this project off the ground. Alexina Thielemans of Astound Agency.
Lynne Murray and Romaine Werblow for picture library assistance. Caroline Twomey for proofreading. Marie Lorimer for indexing. Jake for his design prowess and compositions. And most of all, Tamara, for her kindness, patience, adaptability, and for teaching us about dragons!
