

PLANTS TO CHEER YOU UP

Some plants can change our mood and brighten our day in an instant.

It may be the sweet fragrance of a bloom or the cheeky shape of foliage. It could even be the simple joy of seeing your favorite variety flower. These delights can lift your heart and make you smile.

Cape jasmine ▲ Gardenia jasminoides

The fresh, sweet fragrance of the cape jasmine is sure to cheer up anyone who steps through the door. One sniff and bang! You're on holiday in Greece, walking down to the taverna. The heavenly scent of this plant really is aromatherapy for the soul — it will delight your senses and fill you with joy instantly. Place it where you and your visitors will frequently walk past it for maximum impact. See pp.86–87

Amaryllis ► Hippeastrum cultivars

With so much energy and life within its bulb, it is hard not to be cheered up by this plant. Easy to grow, a joy to watch, and bringing some much-needed color in the winter, it soon becomes part of the family. See pp.92–93

Living stones ▼ Lithops spp.

This plant will entertain you and your guests. They are funny to describe and even funnier to see. Whether you think they look like brains or bottoms, they are sure to brighten your day and make you crack a smile—especially when you see the flower blooming from between the two “stones.” See pp.102–103
