

1

Preheat the oven to 200°C (400°F/Gas 6). Cut two large squares of baking paper and mix the butter, lemon zest, and dill.

2

Stack half the vegetables in the centre of one of the sheets of baking paper and place a piece of salmon on top.

3

Top with half the butter and a lemon wedge. Then seal the parcel by folding it up and twisting the ends.

4

Repeat with the other parcel, then cook for 20-25 minutes, until cooked through.
