

2 tbsp mild curry powder

1 large butternut squash, cubed

1 x 400ml (14 fl oz) can coconut milk

225g (8oz) green beans, trimmed and chopped

1

Heat the oil in a large saucepan over medium heat and cook the onion, garlic, and ginger for 2-3 minutes.

2

Add the curry powder and cook for 1 minute.

Mix together

3

Add the butternut squash and 2 tbsp of water and cook for 1-2 minutes, until soft.

4

Pour the coconut milk and 200ml (7 fl oz) water on top and stir in the beans. Bring to the boil, then reduce the heat, cover, and simmer for 15-20 minutes.
