

The dot is very important—it allows you to count each spin of the anemometer.

The top part moves
around easily to give
an accurate reading.

