

Cloth shelter

Colorful cloth

Early people were skilled at weaving cloth for clothes, blankets, and decoration.

Houses had no front doors! Instead, people used hatches in the roofs.

Entrance hatch

Wall painting

Goats

Sheep

Ox

Interior design

Some houses were decorated with wall paintings, which showed scenes from everyday life.

Under the floor

In this town, people who died were buried under the floors of houses.