

Hieroglyphics

The Ancient Egyptians had a civilization that lasted more than 3,000 years. They left behind lots of clues about their lives, including texts written in hieroglyphs, which are small pictures.

3 In the middle

The Middle Chamber was originally called the Queen's Chamber. It is thought to have contained a statue of the king as well as items such as furniture, tools, and weapons.

4 A long walk

The Grand Gallery leads to the King's Chamber. It is nearly 165 ft (50 m) long. In one section its ceiling is an incredible 26 ft (8 m) high.

5 This way in

Today's entrance was created in the year 820 CE. It was made by robbers when they were breaking into the pyramid.

Quick quiz

Where is the Great Pyramid of Giza?

What was inside the King's Chamber?

What is the Queen's Chamber now called?