

But the sixth day was the busiest of all. God made all the animals that live on the land, not just the big ones like buffaloes and elephants and tigers, but everything, right down to the smallest beetle

