

As soon as the ark was ready, Noah took out his list of animals. His family had been rounding them up for weeks. How the neighbors stared! Two by two, the animals entered the ark.

The bears lumbered, the reindeer pranced, the giraffes swayed, and the snakes slithered.

The elephants were terribly slow, the lions padded behind, the parrots squawked, and the wolves howled. The swift cheetahs overtook the crawling crocodiles and leaping kangaroos.
