

As the birds flew away, Noah saw a beautiful arch of colors glowing in the sky. It was the first rainbow. God promised that He would never again destroy life on Earth—the rainbow would remind Him of His promise.