

Sarah was very surprised to have a baby at last. They called their son Isaac.

But when Isaac was still a little boy, God decided to give Abraham a terrible test. He wanted to see how much Abraham loved Him. God told him to take Isaac up a high mountain and kill him. Abraham was horrified, but he did not tell Sarah what God had said.

He loaded a donkey and took Isaac with him, as if they were just going out for a picnic.

Isaac carried the wood and they set off to climb the mountain.

