

But Reuben disagreed and said “Let’s just leave him at the bottom of the pit.” Reuben secretly meant to come back later and rescue Joseph.

Later, while Reuben was busy, the other brothers sold Joseph to some merchants who were traveling to Egypt.

Then the brothers smeared the rainbow coat with goat’s blood and told Jacob his favorite son had been killed by a wild beast.

