

When the merchants reached Egypt, they sold Joseph to the captain of Pharaoh's guard. Joseph worked hard and after some years he was made head of all the household.

One day, Pharaoh had a nightmare which no-one could explain. Joseph had strange dreams himself and was good at knowing what they meant. So the Pharaoh sent for him.

