

In Pharaoh's dream, seven fat cows came out of the river to graze.

Then seven thin cows followed the fat cows out of the water and gobbled them up. But the thin cows didn't get any fatter.

Joseph told Pharaoh that the dream meant Egypt was going to have seven years of good harvests followed by seven years of famine.

Pharaoh was so impressed by Joseph's explanation, he put him in charge of building barns to store extra food for the bad years. And Pharaoh's dream came true, just as Joseph said.