

Years later, during the famine, 11 visitors came from Canaan to ask for food. They were Joseph's brothers. He knew who they were immediately, but they had no idea who this powerful Egyptian was. Joseph decided to test his brothers to see if they had changed.

He gave them all the food they could carry, but in Benjamin's sack he hid his special silver cup.

The brothers set off for home, but they had not gone far, when Joseph's guards rode after them and found the cup in Benjamin's sack.
