

But Daniel went on praying to God the way he always had. Everyone could see him.

“Daniel prays to God,” said the jealous politicians to Darius. “He has broken your law. You must throw him to the lions.”

Darius was sad. He liked Daniel, but the law was the law.

He ordered Daniel to be thrown into the lions' den.

