

Next morning, the King went sadly to the lions' den, not daring to hope that Daniel had been saved.

"Daniel! Has your god kept you safe from the lions?"

