

"Here I am. God's angel stood between me and the lions."

The King ordered Daniel to be taken out of the pit. He had the politicians thrown in instead and the lions made short work of them, munching on their bones.

Then Darius ordered all his people to respect Daniel's God.

