

Jonah and the Big Fish

God watched over His Earth and saw that there were still bad things happening on it. He saw that the people of Nineveh were very wicked and violent. He asked an Israelite teacher, called Jonah, to talk to them.

But Jonah didn't like that idea at all. He didn't want to go to Nineveh.

He ran away from God and got on to a ship that was going to Tarshish, in the other direction.
