

God knew that Jonah
was on the ship and He sent a great storm. All the sailors
were terrified.

When Jonah realized
what was happening,
he told the sailors
that the storm was his fault. "I tried to disobey God," he said.
"You had better throw me over the side."

The sailors didn't want to do it, but Jonah made them throw him into the water. Immediately the wind dropped and the sea became calm.

