

After they were married, Joseph and Mary had to travel to Bethlehem. By then it was nearly time for Mary to have her baby.

They searched everywhere for a place to stay, but the city was crowded. Every inn was full.

But one innkeeper took pity on them when he saw how tired Mary was. "You can sleep in my stable," he said.

