

On the hills some shepherds were guarding their sheep. They were sitting together and dozing when suddenly the sky was filled with light and an angel appeared.

“Don't be afraid, there is great news! A baby has been born in a stable in Bethlehem who will save all the world.”

The shepherds were amazed. “A Savior?” they said. “In a stable?” They decided to go and see this wonderful sight for themselves.

