

So they took their flocks and went down into Bethlehem . . .

. . . straight to the stable where the baby Jesus was. Later, they told everyone the amazing things they had seen and heard.

Mary never forgot that night and thought about it often.

