

Three Wise Men

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem, a new star appeared in the sky. Three wise men in the East saw the star and knew a great king had been born.

The three wise men followed the star all the way to Jerusalem.

They went straight to King Herod's palace and asked, "Where is the new king?" Herod was furious, but he pretended to be pleased.

"He isn't here," he said. "But do tell me when you find him."
