

When the feast was over, Mary and Joseph set off on the long journey back to Nazareth.

They had lots of friends and relations with them, so that almost a whole day passed before they realized that Jesus wasn't with them. He was lost!

Frantic with worry, Mary and Joseph turned back toward Jerusalem. They searched for Jesus for three whole days. At last, they went sadly to the temple . . .

