

... and there he was!

The boy was sitting with the oldest, wisest people, not just listening, but asking them questions. And they were asking Jesus questions too, just as if he was a wise old man.

Mary and Joseph rushed forward.

"What have you been doing?
We have been worried sick about
you. We thought you were lost."

