

Jesus blessed the food, and told the disciples to hand it out.

They looked into the basket, and saw . . .

two small fishes,

and five barley loaves.

It didn't really look like enough food for five thousand people, but the disciples did as Jesus had asked.

