

It was astonishing. By the time everyone had eaten as much as they wanted, there were not one, not two, but . . .

one, two, three,

four, five, six,

seven, eight, nine,

ten, eleven, twelve
baskets left over.

Imagine how the little boy felt! Everyone began talking about who Jesus could be to make such miracles happen.

