

The Last Supper

Not everyone was pleased to see Jesus.

Some of the disciples went ahead and found a room where they could eat the special Passover meal together.

During the meal, Judas slipped quietly away from the table.

Jesus knew that Judas, one of the twelve disciples, was going to betray him to those people who hated him.