

The First Easter

The soldiers jammed a crown of thorns on Jesus' head and made him carry a wooden cross to a hill outside the city. They made a sign for the cross saying: THE KING OF THE JEWS.

Then Jesus was nailed to the cross. Two thieves were crucified beside him.

Jesus' mother, Mary, and his disciple John stood at the foot of the cross. Jesus asked them to look after one another.

