

In great pain, Jesus asked God to forgive the people who had plotted to kill him. Then the sky turned black and the ground trembled. Jesus gave a loud cry and died.

One of the soldiers there, who saw all of this happen, said, "Truly, this man was the Son of God."

