

Jesus' friends gently took his body down from the cross and laid it in a cave. Then they rolled a huge stone across the mouth of the cave.

All the next day, which was Saturday, the Jews' holy day, Jesus' family and friends hid from the soldiers and cried because Jesus had died.

On Sunday morning they went to visit his tomb. But the stone had been rolled back and Jesus' body was gone.

