

While Moses grew up, the king treated God's people very badly. It made Moses sad. One day, God spoke to Moses from a burning bush. "I am going to give my people a wonderful new home," he said.

