

Moses led the people out of Egypt—but then the king changed his mind and sent soldiers after them! The people had to cross a sea to be safe.

