

God made a path through the sea.
The people followed Moses toward the beautiful land that God had promised.

